To that end, the present report analyses transactions by category of financial instruments for retail and professional clients under MiFID II

Interpretation of the provided information

The information provided in the present document encompasses the period between 1.01.2023 and 31.12.2023.

The present report has been published in accordance with the templates set up in the annex II of the Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/576 of 8 June 2016.

Analysis of execution factors

The Bank ensures the quality of order execution for all asset classes and for retail and professional clients in line with best market practices and its Order Execution Policy.

The present section details general elements encompassing all asset classes, complemented with specific items in the further sections dedicated to these distinct asset classes.

Relative importance of execution critera

As described in its Order Execution Policy, the Bank determines the criteria it deems most appropriate to consider and prioritize in the execution of any transaction. This encompasses:

- The price of the financial instrument,
- · All implicit or explicit costs related to the order execution,
- The speed and likelihood of execution and settlement,
- · The size and nature of the order, and
- Any other parameters that may impact the quality or total cost of order execution.

The Bank determines the relative importance of each execution factors by considering the following factors:

- characteristics and MiFID classification of the client (retail or professional),
- characteristics of the order,
- · characteristics of financial instruments that are the subject of that order; and
- · characteristics of the execution venues to which that order can be directed.

For non-professional clients within the meaning of MiFID 2, in general and for all asset classes the highest relative importance will be given to the price of the financial instrument and the overall costs of executing the transaction - including any fees paid to third parties involved in the execution of the order.

No other criteria were given precedence over total consideration of costs and price for retail clients, in line with the Bank's policy. No exception was recorded in 2023.

For professional clients, the relative importance of the aforementioned criteria will depend on the market circumstances and the order characteristics. During stressed market conditions, the predominant criteria may vary in the best interest of the client.

Potential conflicts of interest in selection of execution venues & brokers.

The Bank holds neither stake nor interest in any venue or broker it may rely on to execute transactions on behalf of clients, with a single exception for Debt instruments (see dedicated section for further details). However, the Bank is centraliser for execution or routing for several Degroof Petercam group entities.

A description of any specific arrangements with any execution venues regarding payments made or received, discounts, rebates, or non-monetary benefits received

The Bank does not receive any remuneration, rebates or non-monetary benefits for the execution of client transactions on a particular execution venue nor has specific arrangements regarding this in place.

Rationale underlying changes in selected execution venues and brokers

All execution venues and brokers the Bank may rely on for execution of orders are subject to a formal annual review by the Broker Committee, as detailed in the 'BDPL Order Execution Policy'. The selection of brokers as intermediaries is subject to validation by Compliance and Risk Management for many aspects including legal review and counterparty risk.

Trade Cost analytics

The amount and quality of data have significantly improved in a MiFID II world. The Bank uses performant analytical tools for 'Ttrade Cost Analysis' (TCA) and 'Best Execution'. These tools allow the bank to gather statistics, review business performance, evaluate counterparties and guide pre-trade analytics.

The Bank currently uses BTCA from Bloomberg for FX and Listed Derivatives, Liquidmetrix for Equities and own developed tool for Bonds.

Definitions

'Passive order' means an order entered into the order book that provided liquidity
